

DAVID'S VISION

"I want to share God's love through music and through my life with a spirit of total excellence, for His Glory, until I am completely poured out!" - David Harsh

In conclusion, David's heart can best be captured in the words of the chorus from one of his most well-known songs:

And if I clap, and if I pray
May these hands You gave me
Always point the Way

And if I walk, and if I run
May the path I take
Lead others to Your Son

And wherever I may go,
Whatever I may do,
May these four limbs You've given me
Bring Honor, Praise and Glory...
Back to You!

WHO IS THIS GUY?

"I became a Christian on July 29, 1992, when I was challenged to claim my faith as my own. Five years later, I was an opera singer. I needed a direct means of expressing my faith through music, so I began to study acoustic guitar and write songs with Christian lyrics. My passion for excellence on the guitar led me to seek out five of the best acoustic guitarists in the world and to study with them. These artists included Alex De Grassi, John Renbourn, and Pierre Bensusan. Meanwhile, my songwriting career developed into several CD releases and now I have a full-time career performing around the country. God has given me the desires of my heart!" - David Harsh

WHAT MAKES DAVID UNIQUE?

which involves placing both of his hands on the neck of the guitar, while he creates percussion sounds on multiple surfaces of the instrument. David also uses a loop station pedal which allows him to layer multiple tracks in a live setting. David's development of the guitar is an ongoing adventure. It is definitely something you have to see and hear in concert! For a

WHO ENJOYS DAVID'S MUSIC?

People of all ages enjoy David's music! From elementary school students to senior citizens, David captivates the hearts of those who hear him. In a world with diverse music styles, David's innovative and heartfelt music reaches people from multiple backgrounds in a profound way.

WORSHIP LEADING

Although David's primary focus is sharing his original music, he is also a skilled worship leader. David has been invited to be a guest worship leader in numerous settings, from local churches to regional conferences. He has a heart for worship, and finds a clear distinction between performing and leading worship. David will often be invited to lead worship with his guitar in the morning services at a church prior to performing an evening concert for that congregation.

GUEST SPEAKING

David has spoken to various groups ranging in age from junior high on up. These have included youth groups, college chapels, family camps, and luncheons. Because of his musical ability, he incorporates original songs into his talks, as well as innovative and compelling illustrations.

"You will be blessed by the man, the music, and the message."

Merry Jensen, former Director of Worship Celebration Presbyterian Church, Redmond, Washington

DAVID'S MUSIC SEMINARS

David taught private guitar lessons for several years, and at one time had 50 students each week. When his performing career took off, he stopped teaching, but he still had a desire to give back his knowledge. For this reason, David now teaches eight different seminars, which are available to be taught prior to some of his concerts. They are highly detailed and cover multiple musical concepts from songwriting to worship leading, from guitar fundamentals to 20 different ways to use capos! Here is what people are saying about David's seminars:

"I've been playing the guitar for over 30 years. David's seminar was truly enlightening. It opened my eyes. Thanks to David, I'm learning again."

*Gary Bergstrom
Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin*

"David's insight was practical, Biblical, and gave me perspective on being a part of my worship team at church."

*Dana Jones
North Coast Family Fellowship, Seaside, Oregon*

"David's 'Breaking the Mold' seminar opens up a whole new world of possibilities for the acoustic guitarist."

*Jim McCoy
First Baptist Church, Ashland, Oregon*
