David Harsh Concert Coming to

Open to Public; All Welcome

Northwest Christian artist David Harsh will perform on _____ at _____ in a concert open to the public and surrounding community.

The concert is free and open to the general public; please note a freewill offering will be received to support David's inspiring music ministry which is also a registered 501(c)3 non-profit organization.

Harsh is a native Washingtonian who began his serious musical study in college, where he learned to sing classically in six languages. His background includes opera, lieder, chanson, art song, vocal jazz, renaissance music, oratorio, music theater, and pop. He soon discovered a desire to pursue Christian music, and began writing his own songs and taking private guitar lessons. Harsh has since studied with 5 of the best acoustic guitarists in the world, including Phil Keaggy, Alex De Grassi, and John Renbourn. Harsh performs at all sorts of venues around the country, including music festivals, camps and schools.

Harsh has won numerous awards for his work, including first place in a national songwriting competition through the AGMA (Academy of Gospel Music Arts.)

Harsh has independently released 3 full-length albums. More information about his ministry, including video clips and sounds clips, can be found on his website at www.davidharsh.com, YouTube at www.youtube.com/davidharsh and on Facebook at www.facebook.com/DavidHarshMinistries.
